Have you considered leaving a gift in your Will to The REP?

Use the power of your Will to allow the audiences of tomorrow to enjoy the world class productions and activities you appreciate today. Leaving a gift in your Will is a great way to make your permanent mark on the theatre and to ensure the future of The REP for the next generation of theatregoers.

Legacy gifts enable us to continue to stage new works and deliver our acclaimed outreach programme with young people and marginalised and vulnerable groups in the local community. Legacies also allow us to offer our support to talented and emerging artists who would not otherwise be able to realise their potential.

We invite you to play your part in our next chapter, invest in our future and put The REP first.

A legacy gift to a charity is free from Inheritance Tax and can be of any size – even 1% of your estate can make a lasting difference. We need your help to achieve our mission to create a vibrant programme of world class performances and activities that enrich the lives of the communities we serve, and inspire artists to make their best work with us.

Pass on your passion for theatre to future generations

A recent unrestricted bequest enabled us to purchase vital captioning equipment, allowing us to provide this service far more easily. As a result, we were able to caption every performance of our Christmas production for the very first time. You too can have a lasting impact and make a difference to so many.

How do I make a Will?

Making a Will is the only way to make sure that your estate passes to the people and organisations you would like to benefit. Including a gift to The REP in your Will is a great way to leave a lasting legacy for the future.

Should you decide to make a gift to The REP, you can decide to leave either a share of the residue of your estate, a fixed amount or a beloved item to grace the stage.

Where possible, we ask that you leave your gift to The REP for its general charitable purposes rather than naming a specific use or project. This will allow us to sustain our range of activities and utilise the funds where they will bring the most benefit, based on needs and projects at the time the funds are available from your estate.

If you would prefer to leave funds to pay for or towards a specific purpose or project please contact us to discuss your intentions so that we can ensure we carry out your wishes in the best possible way for you.

Before making a legacy gift to The REP, we recommend that you seek professional legal advice to prepare your Will. As The REP's official legacy partner, Anthony Collins LLP is pleased to offer any one who wishes to leave a gift to The REP, a 10% discount, a free initial consultation and a free advice phone call or face-to-face meeting.

Making A Difference

“The Young REP has been a massive building block in my life. I have not only built the confidence I need to perform on a stage, but made many friends who will be friends for life and for this I am very grateful”

Young REP bursary recipient

“What I love about The REP is the sense that it’s part of the community and not just this thing that has been parachuted in”

Sir Lenny Henry, REP First campaign Ambassador

“One of the things that make me proud of The REP is our pioneering spirit, which drives us to seek out fresh approaches to the art of making and sharing theatre. Offering audiences and artists bold new opportunities is the heartbeat of our organisation”

Roxana Silbert - Artistic Director

“Birmingham REP exemplifies the importance of theatre. If you have a little to spare you couldn’t find a better cause!”

Ian McDiarmid, REP First campaign Ambassador
